

COMPLIANCE eNEWSLETTER

The March 2016 quarterly issue of the OOC's eNewsletter is now available online at <http://www.compliance.gov>. In this edition:

Compliance@Work:

Celebrating Women's History Month Take time to celebrate the accomplishments of the 313 women who've served in Congress since 1917.

Resolve to Keep a Safe and Accessible Workplace in 2016 The start of a new year is a great time to make resolutions. This year, learn ways to keep your office safe from common workplace hazards.

George Mason Life Program Internships The Congressional Internship Program for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities (CIPIID) provides a unique Hill experience to students who otherwise would not likely have the opportunity.

Fast Facts:

Space Heaters Many hazards exist unless they're properly used and monitored.

Cold Stress Know the warning signs of cold stress and how to combat it.

Computer Workstation Setup Making your workspace personal to your needs will prevent discomfort, pain, or injury and make those long hours more manageable.

Storage in Corridors and Exit Pathways In the event of an emergency, these areas should be clear.

Training Opportunities for Staff in Washington, DC:

OOO 2016 Course Offerings

May 16-18 - Congressional Research Service

Online Academy

"Preventing Sexual Harassment in the Workplace"